Invites you to join us for a fun
Fall Holiday Workshop
Saturday, November 17, 2012
Ashland Public Library, Front Street
10:30 am – Noon

This workshop will include:

- A Lecture: Paul Split, lecturer and horticultural consultant, will explore the many evergreens and conifers available in our zone. Paul will show examples of these shrubs, and discuss how to select, grow and harvest them.
- A Demonstration: Paul will assemble a 22" decorated wreath, a mantle swag and two candel centerpieces. These items will be raffled as free door prizes at the Workshop!
- The Workshop: Participants will receive a bag containing everything needed to create their own Fall Holiday centerpiece, with fresh greens, a candle and artificial ornaments. Additional materials will be included to change it over into a Winter Holiday centerpiece.

Participants are encouraged to bring their own pruners and an apron, and may want to bring some of their own greens & seasonal decorations to incorporate into their project. Light refreshments will be provided by garden club members.

Cost Per Participant: $28.00 (includes all materials)

Space is limited and prepayment is required so send in your reservation and payment early. The Deadline to sign up is Nov. 10th. We will contact you to confirm your reservation.
