“Gardening Is Murder!” With Neal Sanders

Saturday, February 8, 2014 (snow date February 15th)
10:30 am - Ashland Public Library

Join us as Neal Sanders gives a humorous horticultural talk, “Gardening is Murder”. The unique focus of this program is on gardening from a husband’s perspective.

Light morning refreshments will be provided by garden club members.

Neal is also the well-known author of several mystery books with gardening themes. As a bonus, following the program Neal will be available for book signings at Kelly’s, located next door to the Library. Please join us there to meet Neal; and if you wish, to enjoy a delicious lunch at one of Ashland’s newest restaurants.
